Bangladesh Ambassador to Armenia presents Credentials:

Quote: "The non-resident Ambassador of Bangladesh to the Republic of Armenia, Mr. Md. Jashim Uddin (who is also Bangladesh's resident Ambassador to Greece) has presented his Credentials to the President of the Republic of Armenia, Mr. Serzh Sargsyan at the Presidential Palace in the Armenian capital, Yerevan this morning . While presenting his credentials the Bangladesh Ambassador conveyed the greetings of the Hon'ble President and the Hon'ble Prime Minister of Bangladesh to the President of Armenia. The Bangladesh Ambassador apprised the President of Armenia about the development activities in Bangladesh under the visionary leadership of Hon'ble Prime Minister, Sheikh Hasina. Referring to the bilateral relations, the Ambassador said that there exists considerable potential of cooperation between the two countries including in the area of trade, commerce and investment. He also underscored the importance of increased contacts both at the political and official levels between the two countries.

The President of Armenia said that the two countries can explore different areas of cooperation for the mutual benefits of the countries, particularly in the area of economy. The President assured the Ambassador of all cooperation during his tenure as Bangladesh Ambassador to Armenia. The Deputy Foreign Minister of the government of Armenia, Mr. Sergey Manasarian and high government officials of Armenia were present at the credentials presentation ceremony. Ambassador Jashim Uddin is the first Ambassador who presented Credentials as Bangladesh Ambassador in Armenia." Unquote
